Thank you for your email, Mr. Cochran. I see that my colleague, Jonathan Stein, has worked with your colleagues to set up a meeting among the JCC and EPA's External Civil Right Compliance Office for Tuesday morning at 9:00 am. Please let me know if there are any questions my colleagues and I can answer in the meantime. We look forward to having this discussion with you.

Respectfully

Aaron

Subject: Meeting with EPA's External Civil Rights Compliance Office regarding case numbers 04R-19-R3

Thank you for your email and letter to Stephanie Grove, County Administrator for Jefferson County, West Virginia, dated October 17, 2019. Ms. Grove received both your email and letter and provided them to me. I am an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in the Civil Division of our Prosecutor's office, and serve as general counsel for the Jefferson County Commission under the authority of the Prosecutor.

In your email to Ms. Grove, Aaron, you requested that we set up a call to discuss the logistics of this case with you, preferably by tomorrow afternoon, October 24, 2019. Unfortunately, our County Administrator would be unavailable to be a part of this call until early next week, preferably Tuesday morning, October 29th before 11 AM. Would that day and time work for you?

While I would prefer for Ms. Grove to be involved in this call, if you feel that the call should be made sooner, I am available tomorrow morning, (Thursday the 24th) before noon, or Monday morning, October 28th before noon.

Please advise as to how you would like to proceed.
